THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1863.

Unavoidable and accidental circumstances compell us to omit in to-days paper an extended notice of the interesting incidents of the trip of the Frankfort committee, escorted by Ex. Gov. Robinson to his home, and of the ceremonies connected with his reception by the citizens of Scott county. We hope, however, to publish the same in our next issue.

Official Majorities.

Official Vote of Kentucky.

We publish in this day's paper the official vote cast at the late August election for State officers and members of Congress, as examined and certified to by the Governor, Attorney General, and Secretary of State. It will be seen that returns had not been received from Clinton, Harlan, Johnson, Letcher, Perry, and Pike counties when this comparison was made, officially. We have the reported vote of the following counties, which, when added to the official vote for Governor is as follows:

Bramlette	Wickliffe
104 counties, official	50,586 17,344
Johnson county	446
Harlan county	271
Perry county	163
	68,366 17,389
	17,389
Bramlette's majority	50,972

In our next paper we shall publish some facts in relation to the previous votes of Kentucky, for the purpose of comparison, and to show, had the Union voters, now in the Federal army, cast their votes, that Governor Bramlette's majority would have been about the same, if every Southern sympathizer in the State had cast his vote for the Wickliffe ticket.

Appointments by the Governor.

E. L. VAN WINKLE, Esq., of Pulaski, to be Secretary of State.
Lt. Col. JOHN BOYLE, of the Kentucky Volunteers, to be Adjutant General.
S. G. SUDARTH, Esq., of Adair, to be Quarter Master General.

We congratulate the Governor upon securing the services of such excellent officers.
Mr. Van Winkle is known to all the State as a Bell and Everett Elector, for the State at large, in the last Presidential canvass. He is an eloquent speaker, an able lawyer and a gentleman of high character; and, in the discharge of the duties of the office nearest to the Chief Executive, will bring industry, business capacity, and integrity. We understand that he contemplates making Frankfort his permanent residence.

Col. Boyle has served with great credit as a Staff Officer and as Lieut. Colonel of the 9th Kentucky Cavalry. His natural capacity, fine attainments and extensive military experience, peculiarly fit him to successfully discharge the duties of his branch of the War Office; and, from the energy and just ambition he has ever shown, there is an assurance that he will make an excellent Adjutant General.

Mr. Suddarth is a lawyer of ability, of rare business talent and great integrity of character. Having had experience in business similar to those which he is now called to perform, this, combined with his abilities and his tastes, eminently qualify him for the office of Quarter Master General.

Maj. JAMES R. PAGE of this city has been appointed Assistant Secretary of State, and we need not say, to those who know him, that no better selection could have been made. He is well qualified, and will make a good officer.

GENERAL JAS. F. ROBINSON, JR.—In the retirement of this gentleman from the office of Quarter Master General, the perplexing, laborious, and responsible duties of which, he has discharged with such ability and fidelity to the public interest, during the last 12 months, the State loses the services of an excellent officer and the city of Frankfort a respected citizen. General R., in all his official duties, has been faithful, attentive, and laborious. The kind feelings and well wishes of the citizens of Frankfort attend him.

The idea being abroad that Col. B. B. Sayre's School was to be removed to the late location of the Ky. Military Institute, we would call the particular attention of those interested to the notice published in our paper of this morning.

General John W. Finnell—Interesting Correspondence.

The subjoined correspondence will show the very high and just estimate in which the official capacity, and past official services of our late Adjutant General, John W. Finnell, is held by the present distinguished Governor. All who have had official communication or business with the office, will attest the fidelity and ability, with which the intricate and responsible duties of the War Department have been discharged:

COLUMBIA, KY., August 17, 1863.

JNO. W. FINNELL, Adj. Gen. Ky.
The important duties of the office, and the able and efficient manner with which you have discharged them, under the present administration, together with our long established friendship, encourages me to tender—with the hope of your acceptance—a continuation in the office of Adjutant General of Kentucky. Signify to me as early as possible, whether I may rely upon your acceptance. Truly and respectfully,
THO. E. BRAMLETTE.

FRANKFORT, Aug. 20, 1863.

Gen. Thos. E. Bramlette:
MY DEAR SIR: Yours, of the 17th inst., tendering me the office of Adjutant General on your staff, as Governor of Kentucky, has been received.

Permit me to thank you for this manifestation of your appreciation of my past services as Adjutant General, as well as for the kind terms in which you have been pleased to communicate it.

I assure you, sir, that it would afford me great pleasure to be associated with you in that capacity, but my private affairs, now for more than two years almost entirely neglected, imperatively demanding attention. To neglect them longer would be an act of great injustice to my family.

I would gladly have relinquished the position long since into Governor Robinson's hands had it not have been for the fact that I was one of those who had some agency in placing him in the perplexing station to which he was called, and felt, for that reason, that he had a right to all the assistance I was able to render him.

I am aided in coming to the determination to decline, as I do most respectfully and gratefully, your request, by the reflection that it will not be difficult to supply the vacancy occasioned by my withdrawal, with some one who, to say the least, is equally competent with myself, and furthermore that your own experience and observation as a soldier in the field has qualified you to direct the military affairs of the State with but little labor to yourself.

I cannot close without again thanking you for this mark of kindness, and the expression of my most hearty wishes that your administration may not only be beneficial to the State, but an agreeable and pleasant one to yourself.

Very truly, your friend,
JNO. W. FINNELL.

On the eve of General Finnell's departure, his assistants in the office, presented to him a handsome goblet, as a testimonial of their good opinion and good feeling towards him. The presentation was accompanied with the following correspondence, which possesses a value, as coming from those who occupied the nearest relations to the recipient:

HEAD-QUARTERS KENTUCKY VOLUNTEERS,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
FRANKFORT, September 1, 1863.

GEN. JNO. W. FINNELL,
Dear Sir: The cup which accompanies this note is tendered as a token of our warmest personal regard, as well as by way of acknowledgment of our obligations to you for the undeviating kindness and courtesy which has characterized your bearing towards us in the relation which we have borne to each other—you as the head and we as the employees of this department.

Your retirement severs our official relations, but believe us when we assure you that no length of time or distance can sever you from the kindest and best wishes of our hearts.

Finally, in parting, let us claim an enduring share of your regard, and assure you that we are,

Truly your friends,
R. A. ATHEY,
JOHN N. MARKHAM,
CHAS. HAYDON,
CHAS. J. CLARK,
W. E. COX.

HEAD-QUARTERS KENTUCKY VOLUNTEERS,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
FRANKFORT, September 1, 1863.

GENTLEMEN: I am very proud of the handsome goblet which you have done me the honor to present to me, and I shall take care long to cherish it as a valued memento of our happy official relations and of the kindly termination of them.

Presented as it has been upon my retirement from office, the sincerity of the motive (flattering as it is to me,) which impelled you thus to honor me, is beyond doubt or suspicion, thus as it is refining the precious metal of which the cup is made.

In conclusion, allow me gentlemen to commend you to the continuance in those official habits which during our connection have made the services of each of you so valuable to the State, and to assure you that you have my hearty commendation as officers as well as a warm place in my regards.

Very truly,
JNO. W. FINNELL,
Adjutant General Ky. Vois.

Messrs. Haydon, Cox, Markham, Clarke, and Athey.

We omitted, in our hurried notice of the Inaugural Ceremonies, to mention, that the cannon salutes were fired under the superintendence of that gallant soldier and staunch Union man, Capt. SANFORD GOINS—to whom our citizens are indebted on all public occasions for such services as require skill and energy.

Maj. James R. Page, late of the 9th Kentucky Cavalry, has been appointed, by the Secretary of State, Assistant Secretary, and has entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office.

It may not be inappropriate, just here, to say of Mr. JAMES W. TATE, the late incumbent, that since our residence at the seat of government—a period of nearly thirty-eight years—no person has discharged the duties of Assistant Secretary of State with greater fidelity, and with more of the courteous gentleman, than he. He has our best wishes for the prosperity and happiness of himself and family wherever his lot may be cast.

Capt. NEWTON CRAIG.—On the occasion of the return of Governor Robinson to his home, of which we have given an account, in another column, before the final dispersion of the company, on behalf, and in accordance with the wishes, of the company, Samuel Long, Esq., of Georgetown, in a neat speech, expressed the thanks of all to Capt. Craig, for his generous hospitality, so freely extended to Gov. R., and the Scott and Frankfort delegations. To which Capt. C. responded in a few happy remarks.

The short stay made at Capt. C.'s farm contributed largely to the pleasure of all, and all felt indebted to him, for the aid, which he gave, in honoring the eminent citizen. He has one of the best farms in Scott county; but what contributes much to its interest and value, is his very extensive and complete arrangements for the cultivation of the grape, and choicest fruits of all kinds, suitable to this climate. Capt. C. has been most successful. His fruits are indeed the choicest, and his wines, the product of grapes raised by him, have acquired, already, a reputation, which attest their excellence and purity.

It is a very great luxury to visit his farm and the substantial evidences, which, in the exercise of that unbounded hospitality which he has ever extended to his friends, were given to the Frankfort delegation, will long be remembered.

THOS. J. FRAZIER, Esq.—Although differing with this gentleman in our recent political relations, we cannot withhold an expression of our opinion, on his retirement from office, that he has, with signal fidelity, discharged his whole duty as Register of the Land Office. The relations which have grown up, during the last four years of his residence in Frankfort, have been pleasant and agreeable.

"The Polyrama of the War" will continue to exhibit at Metropolitan Hall to-night and to-morrow night. Do not fail to go to see it. The principal battles of the war are graphically depicted, and we have no doubt that all who visit this exhibition will be more than remunerated. We understand that the full house which attended the first exhibition, of these battle scenes, on last night, were highly pleased, and we bespeak for the proprietors a liberal continuance of the patronage of our citizens.

Major Ridenour states that the sale of the captured Morgan horses at Versailles, Indiana, on Tuesday and Wednesday, proved a decided success. The horses, two hundred and sixty in number, were sold singly, in order to give the poor farmers a chance with the rest. The sales averaged between forty and fifty dollars, some horses bringing over one hundred dollars a head. The sale resulted satisfactorily to the people of that county. Some were so lucky as to identify the horses as their own, and in every case obtained them without cost. On Tuesday and Wednesday of next week another sale will take place at Aurora.

PATRIOTIC.—A street conversation overheard by our reporter:

D.—"Good morning, G.—Ready for the draft?"
G.—"Ready! If my distracted country needs me—if she requires the sacrifice of my life—if the tottering edifice of our glorious Union needs to be cemented with my heart's blood—if it is necessary for her preservation that she stride onward to victory over the detestable foe—then, the victim is ready! With a heart prepared for any fate, and with a firm trust in Divine Providence, I shall, with a lively feeling of doing my duty, and nothing but my duty, march boldly on—to the collector's office and pay my three hundred dollars!"—Haverhill Gazette.

An officer in the French army, dying, left a widow, who had some difficulty in getting her claims to a pension acknowledged. Her lawyer, annoyed by her pertinacity in applying for the pension, one day said to her, "Why do you not apply to the King?" He will grant your pension; it's a mere song. The widow presented herself before the King and showed her claims. While he was considering them, she was humming to herself, "Why do you make that noise?" he inquired. "Sire," said the widow, "they told me the pension was a mere song; I was trying to learn the air!" The King, pleased with her wit, granted her request.

It is said of Sir Isaac Newton that when riding over Salisbury Plain he was accosted by a shepherd's boy who was tending a flock of sheep, and who addressed him thus: "Master, if you have far to go you must get on, or you will have a wet jacket." Sir Isaac, who had studied the stars all his life, looked around, and seeing no appearance of rain, rode on, and took no notice; but being overtaken by a thunder shower, he retraced his steps to the boy and said: "My boy, I will give thee a guinea if thou wilt tell me how thou predictedst the weather so truly." "Will you?" said the boy; "Then you must look at that black ram which is feeding among the flock, and whenever he turns his tail to the wind it will rain within the hour."

The draft in most of the wards of New York city is done and all opposition to it done for—Prentice.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

COMPOUND

CEDRON BITTERS.

The Latest and Most Important Discovery of the 19th Century.

NO MAN'S name is more intimately connected with the history of the Materia Medica of the United States, or more favorably known as a pioneer in medical discovery, than that of DR. JOHN BULL, of Louisville, Ky. His labile preparation of Sarsaparilla, has long stood at the head of the various compounds of that valuable drug. His COMPOUND PECTORAL or WIND CURRY, has become a household word throughout the West and South; and his Worm Lozenges, in less than a year after their introduction, attained a reputation as wide spread as the continent of North America. But the crowning glory of his life remains to be attained in his latest discovery, or rather combination, for he does not claim to have been the discoverer of CEDRON, which is the basis of the bitters now offered to the public. That honor belongs to the native inhabitants of Central America, to whom its virtues have been known for more than two hundred years. Armed with the Indian bids defiance to the most deadly malaria, and handles, without fear, the most venomous serpents. It is a belief with them that while there is breath left in the body the Cedron is potent to cure, no matter what the disease may be.

While Dr. Bull is not prepared to indorse this extravagant pretension, he is nevertheless satisfied from a thorough examination of the evidence relating to its virtues, that as a remedy and preventive for all diseases arising from exposure, either to changes of weather and climate, or to the miasmatic influences, it stands without a rival, and justly deserves the reputation it has so long enjoyed in Central America and the West Indies.

DYSPEPSIA,

and its attendant train of symptoms, it acts more like a charm than a medicine. There is nothing in the whole range of Materia Medica, that can for a moment bear a comparison with it in this disease.

A full account of this wonderful plant may be found in the 11th edition of the U. S. Dispensatory, pages 1387 and 1388.

A series of experiments in which Dr. Bull has been for years engaged, has just been brought to a successful termination, and he is now enabled to offer to the public a combination of Cedron with other approved tonics, the whole preserved in the best quality of copper-distilled Bourbon whisky, which he is confident has no equal in the world. He might furnish a volume of certificates, but the public have long since learned to estimate such things at their true value. The safest plan, for every one to test for himself the virtues of a new medicine. Give the one trial, and you will never use any others. It is not necessary to publish a long list of diseases for which the Cedron Bitters are a specific.

CEDRON BITTERS

In all diseases of the STOMACH, BOWELS, LIVER OR KIDNEYS.

In all affections of the BRAIN, DEPENDING UPON DRAINAGE OF THE STOMACH OR BOWELS.

IN GOUT, RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

And in FEVER AND AGUE;

it is destined to supersede all other remedies. It not only cures these diseases, but it PREVENTS them.

A wine glass full of the Bitters taken an hour before each meal, will obviate the ill effects of the most unhealthy climate, and screen the person taking it against disease under the most trying exposure.

Sold by Druggists and Grocers generally.
